

Celebrate Your Family's Heritage in the Cradle of African American History

Families from all over the South and the country come to the Savannah area year after year for family reunions, educational trips and vacations. The reason is easy to recognize: the Low Country is a rich tapestry primarily woven by African Americans. The Low Country's story is, in a sense, the oldest thread of the African American experience.

From the famous black cultural sites of Savannah to the Gullah-speaking islands just off the coasts of Georgia and South Carolina, Oceanfront Cottage Rentals on Tybee Island, GA, puts you right at the doorstep of history. Our on-staff concierge will arrange heritage tours and activities that your family will remember for the rest of their lives.

Fun and history in Savannah's Forsyth Park

Oceanfront Cottages offers the finest rental homes on Tybee Island, Savannah's closest beach. But our beautiful homes are just the beginning.

The King-Tisdell Cottage, one of the South's first black-owned homes

- African American heritage tours through Savannah's cultural sites
- Ghost tours add an exciting dimension to Savannah's rich history
- The South's best cuisine for the whole family
- 18 miles from beautiful, historic Savannah
- Four hours from Atlanta; two hours from Macon
- More than three miles of renourished beach
- Proximity to Charleston and the Gullah-speaking Sea Islands for day trips galore

Our homes are fully equipped with excellent amenities and accommodations for as many as 16 guests and satellite arrangements are available for larger groups. With rates starting at just \$99/person/night, the Oceanfront Cottage Rentals experience is more than any hotel could offer at a price that can't be beat.

To see our rentals and availability, please visit:

www.oceanfrontcottage.com and book your visit today. With questions, please contact a representative at (800) 786-5889.

The Beach Institute, Georgia's first school for black students