

There's So Much More to the Low Country Than the Low Birthplace

Troops come to Savannah year after year to celebrate the life of Juliette Gordon Low, a champion of girls worldwide. But after visiting the Low Birthplace, how do you make sure the rest of your troop's time in the Low Country is just as fun and educational?

Book your visit to the Juliette Gordon Low Birthplace with Oceanfront Cottage Rentals and see what else we have to offer. Our on-staff concierge will arrange side activities that your girls won't just love—they'll remember their trip here for the rest of their lives.

Oceanfront Cottages offers the finest rental homes on Tybee Island, Savannah's closest beach. But our beautiful homes are just the beginning.

Fun and history in Savannah's Forsyth Park

Dolphins play in the wake of tour boats on Lazaretto Creek

- Dolphin and bird tours through diverse ecosystems
- Scary ghost tours make Savannah's rich history come alive for the ultimate learning experience
- Some of the South's greatest bakeries and restaurants sure to appeal to girls of all ages
- 18 miles from beautiful, historic Savannah
- Four hours from Atlanta; two hours from Macon
- More than three miles of renourished beach
- Proximity to Beaufort, Charleston and the Sea Islands for day trips galore
- Rich local arts and culture for after-tour activities

Our homes are fully equipped with excellent amenities and accommodations for as many as 16 guests and satellite arrangements are available for larger groups. With rates starting at just \$99/person/night, the Oceanfront Cottage Rentals experience is more than any hotel could offer at a price that can't be beat.

To see our rentals and availability, please visit:

www.oceanfrontcottage.com and book your visit to the Juliette Gordon Low Birthplace today.

Discovering nature by kayak, Oatland Island Wildlife Center

With questions, please contact a representative at (800) 786-5889.